

Chicago Wilderness Climate Clinic Agenda

Peggy Notebaert Nature Museum / Chicago Academy of Sciences

Thursday, February 6, 2014

9 am to 4 pm

start time	topic	presenter
9:00	welcome & introductions Climate Change Science and Museum Collections	Rafael Rosa Vice President of Education Dawn Roberts Collections Manager, Peggy Notebaert Nature Museum
9:30	Climate Change & Chicago: What We've Seen and What to Expect	Molly Woloszyn Extension Climatologist, Midwestern Regional Climate Center
10:30	Climate Connections	Kristi Backe Curriculum Coordinator, Peggy Notebaert Nature Museum
10:45	break
11:00	An Asset-based Approach to Engaging Communities in Climate Action	Jenny Hirsch Cultural Anthropologist
12:00	lunch (provided)
12:45	Installing and Maintaining Green Infrastructure: Prairie and Garden Tour	Seth Harper Horticulturist, Peggy Notebaert Nature Museum
1:45	Effects of Climate Change on Terrestrial Animals	Steve Sullivan Senior Curator of Urban Ecology, Peggy Notebaert Nature Museum
2:15	Incorporating Climate Change into Existing Programs	Kristen Pratt Chicago Conservation Corps Coordinator & Kristi Backe, Peggy Notebaert Nature Museum
2:30	break
2:45	Making a Difference: Reducing Greenhouse Gas Emissions at Work and in the Community	Susan Ask Director, animalia project and Chair, CW climate education and engagement working group
3:45	wrap-up & evaluations	